

BEFORE THE BOARD OF INDUSTRIAL INSURANCE APPEALS
STATE OF WASHINGTON

IN RE: CHARLES A. PELLOR

DOCKET NO. 15 11481

CLAIM NO. AG-86452

ORDER VACATING PROPOSED DECISION
AND ORDER AND REMANDING THE APPEAL FOR FURTHER PROCEEDINGS

Charles A. Pellor appeals the Department's decision to close his claim with no permanent partial disability award. At his hearing before this Board, Mr. Pellor was unrepresented. Mr. Pellor testified on his own behalf and presented Edward J. Boyko, M.D., his attending physician, in support of his contention that he is entitled to further treatment and/or an increased permanent partial disability award.

During Dr. Boyko's testimony, the Department lodged an objection to his permanent impairment testimony because the rating was not purportedly performed according to the AMA Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, 5th Edition. Our hearing judge agreed and Mr. Pellor's expert was not given an opportunity to give a specific rating or provide a basis for his opinion. After Mr. Pellor rested, the Department made a motion to dismiss under the provisions of CR 41(b)(3). Our hearing judge granted the motion and dismissed Mr. Pellor's appeal for failure to make a prima facie case.

Mr. Pellor argues that Dr. Boyko was not allowed to give a disability rating and again contends that he is entitled to a higher permanent impairment award. We find that our hearing judge erroneously sustained the Department's objection regarding Dr. Boyko's permanent impairment testimony and that by doing so, she stymied Mr. Pellor's efforts in making a complete record. Further hearings are necessary to allow Dr. Boyko the opportunity to provide full and uninterrupted testimony as to the question of Mr. Pellor's permanent partial disability.

The Proposed Decision and Order of January 6, 2016, is vacated and this appeal is REMANDED FOR FURTHER PROCEEDINGS.

DISCUSSION

There is no doubt that Mr. Pellor failed to make a prima facie case as it relates to the question of his entitlement to further treatment. However, we grant review to address our hearing judge's ruling as it pertains to the Department's objection lodged during Dr. Boyko's testimony. Specifically, Dr. Boyko testified that he believed that Mr. Pellor's permanent partial disability was considerably more than the 5 percent previously awarded. Immediately following this statement, the Department objected and contended that Dr. Boyko's testimony was not useful because he did

1 not utilize the AMA Guides 5th Edition for rating permanent impairment. Our hearing judge agreed
2 and did not allow Dr. Boyko to provide specific testimony as to what permanent impairment he
3 believed was appropriate for Mr. Pellor. Even when Mr. Pellor specifically requested that Dr. Boyko
4 "go ahead and comment on the percentage of disability anyway . . .," our hearing judge denied the
5 request by saying that it "would not be helpful."¹ In our opinion, this is error.

6 While it is true that the Department and the Board generally employ the AMA Guides in 7 evaluating impairments, Dr. Boyko was not given an opportunity to present any alternative rating
8 standard. Impairment of upper extremity conditions can be rated according to a nationally
9 recognized impairment rating guide.² Being board-certified in internal medicine and actively 10 practicing at the VA Puget Sound, Dr. Boyko should have been afforded the opportunity to provide
11 his rating and to explain the basis and/or methodology underlying his opinion. The fact that he did
12 not utilize the AMA Guides does not make his testimony inadmissible. It merely goes to weight and 13 would be best addressed in cross-examination. Because Dr. Boyko was not allowed to provide 14 further comment regarding Mr. Pellor's permanent partial disability, we do not know whether he 15 formally assessed Mr. Pellor or whether his belief that the permanent impairment was considerably
16 more was a generic opinion with no medical substantiation. We also do not know whether the VA
17 has a rating protocol that is different from the AMA Guides, but is nonetheless nationally
18 recognized. Had Dr. Boyko been allowed to proceed with his testimony, many of these questions
19 would have been answered and we would have had a complete record on which to assess whether 20 a prima facie case had been made.

21 Because our hearing judge's erroneous ruling prevented Mr. Pellor from presenting a prima
22 facie case regarding his entitlement to an increased permanent impairment, we find that further
23 hearings are necessary. Dr. Boyko should be given the opportunity to provide full and 24 uninterrupted testimony as to the question of Mr. Pellor's permanent impairment and if necessary,
25 our hearing judge must ask questions to elicit the facts needed to support a prima facie case given
26 that Mr. Pellor is not represented.³

27 ORDER

28 The Department's CR 41(b)(3) motion is denied. This appeal is remanded to the hearings
29 process, as provided by WAC 263-12-145(4), for further proceedings as indicated by this order.
